

THE SIDELINE
SMARTS
CHEAT SHEET

Get the Smarts

By GeNienne Samuels &
The Sideline Prep Coaches

Sideline Smarts Cheat Sheet

Below are a few “KEY POINTS” to focus on from the Sideline Smarts Training. At the bottom of this cheat sheet, document additional notes and take-aways. Be sure to update your Ah-Ha's and Goal Worksheet accordingly based on things you want to remember and OFIs you need to improve. Let's do it!

KEY POINT:

Those that are most prepared are most successful.
Success is not measured by how far you get in the audition process, but how feel after the process is over!

- GeNienne Samuels, Sideline Prep

Cheat Sheet

Take a moment to ensure you understand each of the key points below... if not, go back and listen to the training:

- Be ready for any of the below potential elements that could appear during auditions:
 - Introduction (Intro) Speech & Speaking Ability
 - Freestyle/Fillers and/or Solo Routine
 - Dance Routines (Style; How quickly you pick up the dance; Retention of moves Performance; Facials, etc.)
 - Dance Technique and Kicks/Flexibility
 - Modeling/Walking the Runway/Photo Shoot
 - Interviews (Responses; Speaking Ability; Personality; etc.)
- Understand what the Judges are looking for during each of the above elements.
- Be mindful of all of the below potential scoring elements:
 - Overall Appearance / Look
 - Dance Ability/Execution, Technique, and Kicks
 - Showmanship & Personality
 - Well – Rounded (Professional & Personal) and Versatile (Dance & Look)
 - Confidence & Coach-ability
 - Work Ethic & Willingness to Learn
- Review ALL the Audition Tips and jot down any that stand out to you.
 1. Arrival to Auditions
 2. During Auditions
 3. While Learning Choreography
 4. While “On Deck”... Getting Ready to go in front of the Judges
 5. Presentation – As you walk in & exit and as you stand in front of the Judges
 6. As You Dance
 7. During Downtime/Breaks
 8. During Announcements/Cuts
- Be EARLY... not just on time for prep classes, workshops, and especially auditions!
- Be SMART by knowing and acting on the Audition Tips and having fun at auditions!!

FINAL POINT:

Being successful at an audition is far more involved than just showing up and performing. There are inside tips and secrets that will make you a “Smarter” Candidate... be sure to know them and act on them!

ADDITIONAL TAKE-AWAYS:

PS – If you have any take-aways that you think should be added to this Cheat Sheet, let us know! Either email us or include your idea on Feedback Form for this training. THANKS!

*BDDM!
You are On Your Way to Having the Smarts!!*